DARREN BILBERRY NAMED KHSAA ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER

Darren Bilberry has been hired as an Assistant Commissioner for the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, KHSAA Commissioner Brigid DeVries announced. Bilberry fills the vacancy created with the retirement of Assistant Commissioner Roland Williams, who left in December following four and one-half years service to the Association.

Bilberry brings a wide array of experience to the Association with over 14 years working in athletics and education. He most recently worked in the Fayette County Public School System, teaching secondary students while serving as an assistant football coach at Henry Clay High School.

"We are excited to have Darren join the KHSAA staff," Commissioner Brigid DeVries said. "His experience working within the school system both on the field and in the classroom will be of great benefit."

Bilberry's other past experience includes stints with the University of Kentucky Advising Service and Transfer Center as an Academic Advisor; the University of Kentucky Athletics Department as an Academic Counselor; Southern Illinois University Athletics Department as an Academic Coordinator for Student-Athletes; and Auburn University as an Academic Counselor for Student Athletes.

"I am excited about joining the KHSAA staff, because I feel sports more so than any other endeavor is essential to instilling values such as discipline, leadership, and teamwork into young people," Bilberry said. "I look forward to the opportunity to use my past experiences in athletics to help the association continue to move forward with its mission."

Bilberry is a 1985 graduate of Fort Knox High School and was an All-State honoree on the football field for the Eagles. Playing under Coach Jerry Claiborne, Bilberry was a three year letterman for the University of Kentucky football team from 1987-89 and he received Academic All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1989.

He and his wife Cathy are the proud parents of two girls, Emma (7) and Jane (5) and the family resides in Lexington.

Bilberry begins his duties with the KHSAA Feb. 1, 2007.
